

The Farmers Supply Store

is prepared to sell you all kinds of Merchandise at prices that will please you. Our line of Shoes and Rubber Boots is hard to beat.

We have a complete line of Ladies' Dress Goods, Ladies' Knitted Sweaters and fine Shirt Waists.

Boys' and Men's Clothing, and the price is RIGHT.

Oil Cloths and Linoleums—the kind you want
We carry a good line of School Supplies, and sell the best brand of Groceries.

Salt . . . $3.00 per barrel

Bring in your Produce. We will pay you the highest price for it.

FARMERS SUPPLY STORE

J. H. Wicecarver, Manager.

Marble Hill, Mo

LOCAL NEWS.

A. J. Gorse of Bensville has our thanks for renewal favors.

W. W. Sample will make a special price on hay in car lots.

Mrs. Jennie Sullivan and family moved into D. B. Hill's residence property last week.

For Sale—Clover seed. C. H. Wolter, Jackson, Mo.

Sam Bess, the clever postmaster and merchant at Bensville, has our thanks for renewal favors.

No hunting or trespassing will be allowed on our farms. J. A. Taylor, W. L. Lutes and H. W. Winters.

Rudolph Henley of Sikeston visited the family of his father-in-law, L. J. Grimsley, from Sunday until Monday.

For Sale—Two used Ford cars. Apply to Marble Hill Auto Co., C. F. Hopkins, Mgr.

Miss Rella McDaniel of near Glen Allen, who has been living with Mrs. Robert Rhodes some time, went home one day last week.

The greatest bread, biscuit, cake, pastry flour in the south today is being sold at W. W. Sample's, Lutesville. 28

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wallis were here last Saturday, visiting Mrs. Wallis' parents, Postmaster and Mrs. W. B. Yount.

For Sale—235 head of thoroughbred Angora goats. Good young stock and offered tight for cash. 33 JOHN PETERSEN, Wappapello, Mo.

A. M. Myers of Lutesville favored us with a welcome visit last Saturday and had his subscription marked up another year.

Just received, another fine shipment of buggies. Call and see them and get our prices. Looks are free. C. H. Wolter, Jackson, Mo.

John Fels of near Leopold made us a welcome visit last Saturday and cashed up for another year's subscription to THE PRESS.

For Sale—Smith-Premier typewriter, model four, in fair condition. Good practice machine for student. This office.

Pink Stevens of near Scopus was in town last Saturday and made it convenient to call on the printer and renew his subscription.

No hunting or trespassing will be allowed on our farms. FLETCHER SMITH, FRANK HEITMAN, GEORGE W. SMITH, EVERETT SMITH, Z. A. O'KELLEY, M. O. DENNIS, TONY J. SMITH, GEO. H. WILKINSON.

rs. C. E. Bair of Flat River came down last Saturday to visit her parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. M. Zimmerman, and other relatives in Marble Hill.

Dental Notice
Dr. W. A. Reynolds, Dentist, will be in his office in Marble Hill every Friday and Saturday.

Our friend G. H. Wilkinson of the vicinity of Patton made us an appreciated call last Saturday and fixed it with the printer for another year.

For sale at a bargain one open top hack one square top hack and one round top hack, all have brakes and are first class vehicles. Call and look them over. C. H. Wolter, Jackson, Mo.

A. H. Dunn of Zalma has our thanks for a pleasant call and renewal favors last Saturday. He had his address changed from Buchanan to Zalma.

For Sale—House, eight rooms and basement, good as new, and lot in Marble Hill, convenient to College, good little barn and other out-buildings. For terms call on or address M. F. CHORSTEN, Marble Hill, Mo.

Rev. S. P. Brite of Sikeston filled the pulpit at the Baptist church here last Sunday and the members gave a basket dinner, and had an interesting day.

Stop coughing! You rack the lungs and worry the body. Ballard's Horehound Syrup checks irritation, heals the lungs and restores comfortable breathing. Sold by all druggists.

Leo Slinkard, one of Zalma's clever merchants, mailed us the price and requested that the address label on his paper be pushed up a notch at the date end.

NOTICE
Hunting, fishing and trespassing is forbidden on our farms. Ben Elfrink, F. L. Eaker, Henry Tenholder, John Hinkebein, John Steinnerd, G. J. Elfrink, J. G. Vandeven, H. L. Steinnerd, J. H. Neeninger, S. H. Barrett, F. P. Welch.

D. P. Cole of the Millersville rural route made us a friendly call last Saturday and handed us the price to renew the subscription of his neighbor, W. M. Limbaugh.

Surgeons agree that in cases of cuts, burns, bruises and wounds, the first treatment is most important. When an efficient antiseptic is applied promptly, there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, borozone is the ideal antiseptic and healing agent. Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Sold by all druggists.

Married—At the courthouse in Marble Hill, Saturday, October 25, William Harvey Harrison and Miss Stella Phelps of Sturdivant, Judge R. C. Alexander officiating.

Easy Money!
Make your loans with the Greenbrier Federal Land Loan Association. Money at 5% per cent on your farm and the time may run from 5 to 40 years. Address or see Irvin Fish, Secretary-Treasurer, Zalma, Mo.

Miss Draper, history teacher of Marvin college, was the guest of Miss Nona Taylor Monday night. Miss Draper was chaperone for the Marvin girls' basket ball team.

When your food does not digest well and you feel "blue," tired and discouraged, you should use a little Herbine at bedtime. It opens the bowels, purifies the system and restores a fine feeling of health and energy. Sold by all druggists.

William Sullivan, who suffered a broken collar bone in the football game last Saturday, is getting along as well as could be expected, and will be up and about in a few days.

GOVERNMENT POSITIONS, thousands of men and women needed for census, postal and railway mail, and positions in Washington. Write for special preparatory offer, free. FEDERAL PREPARATORY INST., 30 Sixteenth St., S. E., Washington, D. C.

The Athletic association of Will Mayfield College gave an Indian summer festival in the Masonic building last Friday evening, which was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Morgan and children of Morley were visiting his parents, Attorney and Mrs. Wm. M. Morgan, here Saturday and Sunday. John refereed the football game last Saturday.

Woman's friend is a large trial bottle of Sano! prescription. Fine for black heads, eczema and all rough skin and clear complexion. A real skin tonic. Get a 35c trial bottle at the drug store.

Mrs. Burford, formerly of near Gravel Hill, died in St. Louis, and was buried at Gravel Hill on Wednesday at 2 o'clock. The funeral was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. R. Kincaid.

For Sale—A registered Aberdeen Angus bull, three years old. This is the animal that took the blue ribbon at stock show in Marble Hill and weighed 645 pounds at 6 months old. Is of kindly disposition and is not breachy. E. G. LUTES, 25 Marble Hill, Mo.

Bryan Stone, who is teaching in the vicinity of Bertrand, was a Marble Hill visitor Saturday and Sunday and made it convenient to call and have his name placed on our subscription list.

Neuralgia of the face, shoulder, hands or feet requires a powerful remedy that will penetrate the flesh. Ballard's Snow Liniment possesses that power. Rubbed in where the pain is felt is all that is necessary to relieve suffering and restore normal conditions. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bridges and little daughter of Scopus were in town last Saturday, visiting Mrs. Bridges' parents, Postmaster and Mrs. W. B. Yount, and other relatives and friends.

Strayed or Stolen—From my place about the first of May, a pale red cow with speckled head, dehorned, crop off of right and upper bit in left ear, seven years old, due to be fresh about the middle of last June. Five dollars reward. Write or phone GEO. A. GRINDSTAFF, Marble Hill, Mo.

Our young friend Paul Ward Squires, who is also a member of THE PRESS force on press days, came in last Friday and paid us a year's subscription and had his name placed on our book.

Wormy children are unhappy, puny and sickly. They can't be otherwise while worms eat away their strength and vitality. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge performs a marvelous transformation. Cheerfulness, strength and the rosy bloom of health speedily return. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Riley Hahn of Jackson motored over to Marble Hill last Sunday and spent a few hours with friends, returning in the evening. Mrs. Davis was formerly Miss Ethel Greenwood.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—One brownish red cow about 6 years old, weight about 850 pounds, no white at all, skin of dark brown color, giving milk, five teats, one small teat well up on right side of udder; crop and underbit in right and swallow fork in left ear. Disappeared from the widow Mary Lutes place, 3 miles southwest of Lutesville, August 27. Will pay $10 reward for her recovery. Notify E. F. MILLER, Lutesville, Mo.

Mrs. L. Sadler of Huskey made us a pleasant visit last Saturday and had her subscription credited up another year. She says she spent a good portion of the summer with her son, Fred Sadler, in St. Louis.

Football!
Will Mayfield College
vs.
State Teachers College, Cape Girardeau
Saturday, November 1
On Bidewell's Field

Auction Sale of Registered Cattle

There will be seventeen (17) head of Hereford cattle and fifteen (15) head of Short Horn Durhams sold at the N. B. Graham barn near the depot in Fredericktown, Missouri, on FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1919.

Sale will begin at 10 o'clock a. m. These cattle are all registered and come from some of the best herds to be found in Missouri and Illinois. These cattle will all be sold regardless of the price they bring, as the owners of both lots have sold their farms and cannot keep them. They consist of cows and calves with several males in the lots.

Owner of Herefords
Richard Wulfert.

Owner of Durhams
Felix J. Parkin.

REMEMBER Tuscarora Fertilizers Are Better

Besides they are from $5 to $9 cheaper per ton than last season.

IN STOCK NOW

H. B. COLE
Lutesville, Missouri

WANTED! Hub Timber

WHITE OAK RED OAK POST OAK
Big Prices
See A. ABERNATHY,
Lutesville, Missouri.
The Reuter Hub and Spoke Company,
Dexter, Missouri.

Licensed to marry: Henry Jansen and Caroline Arntzen, John M. Austin and Mrs. Sarah E. Mahrey, Frank Lodghary and Mary Sknggs, Robert H. Limbrook and Alta Speer, William Harvey Harrison and Stella Phelps.

W. F. Wells spent a couple of weeks in St. Louis, returning the first of the week. He was there for treatment by a specialist and says he thinks he is sound and well now. Mrs. Wells visited him a few days last week.

Floyd Crites of near Laffin was in town last Saturday. He brought up a load of as fine sorghum as has been our lot to see in a long time. He was a Press visitor and had his father, T. B. Crites' subscription credited up.

U. E. Kinder of the Glen Allen rural route was in attending the meeting last Saturday and was a welcome Press visitor, and pushed our bank account up to the extent of a dollar and a half to renew his subscription.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Talley of Mountain Grove, Mo., arrived here last week and have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Talley's parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. M. Zimmerman, and other relatives here. They went to Fredericktown the first of the week to spend a few days with relatives and friends there, but will return to Marble Hill before they go home.

Dennis Horrell of near Drum was a Marble Hill visitor last Saturday and favored this office with a welcome call and had his subscription marked up another year. This is a habit with Dennis and the printer appreciates it.

Albert Long of near Patton came down last Saturday to attend the meeting of the Bollinger County Farmers' Mutual Aid society and made the printer glad with a pleasant call and the price of another year's subscription.

Rev. O. H. Duggins, presiding elder of the Farmington district, held the first quarterly conference for the year at Marble Hill Monday afternoon. The attendance was not large, but the meeting was interesting and enjoyed by all.

Hon. Doc Brydon, editor of the Bloomfield Vindicator, was in Marble Hill last Saturday and Sunday, the guest of Rev. B. M. Shacklette, pastor of the Baptist church here. He, accompanied by Bro. Shacklette, most pleasantly invaded our sanctum.

J. L. Wallis of Crooked Creek township made us a welcome call last Saturday and paid a year's subscription to THE PRESS for his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Knowles, of the Marquand rural route. Mr. Wallis is a member of the board of trustees of the Farmers' Mutual Aid society and came in to attend the meeting.